The Oak Lawn Garden Club
1966-1967

The Park Garden Club Council will sponsor a flower show entitled "Autumn Fantasy" on Saturday, Sept. 30, and Sunday, Oct. 1st, in the Harold Richards high school, Northeast, at 10719 S. Kenton ave., Oak Lawn. The show will be open from 2:30 to 9:00 p.m. on Saturday and the hours on Sunday will be from 1:00 to 7:00 p.m. Tickets for the show may be obtained at a discount price from garden club members for a donation of one dollar; or at the door for a donation of $1.25.

The Council consists of eight Garden Clubs in the Southwest area - Brainerd Evergreen Park Greenwood Hickory Hills, Morgan Park Oak Lawn, Palos Heights and Palos Park Guild II.

In the artistic design division there are three classes eligible for a Creativity Award with a choice of material but with some fresh plant material included with four entries in the following classes allowed: "Autumn Trails", an interpretative design; "Today, The Arts", calling for an arrangement for use with abstract paintings; and "Living" an arrangement for an entryway or buffet.

The following classes eligible for the Tricolor Award must use all fresh cut material and the arrangements may be for use anywhere in the home, are "Autumn Song", "The Migration of the Birds", "Happiness", "The Rose Still Grows Beyond the Garden Wall" (an original design for those who have never won a blue ribbon); "His and Hers" using chrysanthemums.

The following classes call for arrangements made with dried and/or treated plant material - "Autumn Shadows", "The First Snowfall" and "Star of the East" which is staged with a backboard to be furnished by the exhibitor.

There will also be table settings open to Garden Clubs and members only entitled "Reflections of the Seasons" with classes "Springtime Echo" an informal luncheon for four; "Last of Summer" calling for a setting for a patio cook-out for six; "Autumn Bridge" on a card table; and "Winter Forecast", a table setting for an informal dinner for four.

Admiring the pretty posies in the yard of Flower Show chairman Mrs. Manuel Mann, are other members of the committee for the show being sponsored by the Park Hills Garden Club Council on Sept. 30 and Oct. 1, at the Harold Richards high school, Northeast (l to r) Mrs. Mann, Mrs. Charles Kalis, co-chairman; (standing) Mrs. Joseph Materna and Mrs. James McFalcone, president of the Council.

Entries in the Horticultural division may be any annual or perennial, Day Lilies; gladiolas, tuberous Begonias, Roses, chrysanthemums, shrubs or tree branch, evergreen branch, shrub berried branch recommended for bird winter feeding; flowering, berried or other vines; collections consisting of shade ground covers, sun ground covers, sodum, Coeleus, herbs, Hosta and others.

There is also a class for a Cacti Display in low container for high school students; House plant which calls for a flowering plant which must be in bloom; foliage plant; Cacti or succulents; vines Bonsai, Dish Gardens or Terrariums; African Violets in a pot with one crown; or the species of African Violets (Saint Paulia) which must be labeled; or an artistic planting made with one or more plants.

Fruits and Vegetables - any fruit calling for three on a plate; grapes, 3 bunches on a plate; small fruit or berries, 10 on a plate; tomatoes, 3 on a plate; vegetables, small - 5 on a plate root, 3 on a plate, or Specimens - best size for eating, one on a plate.

There will also be special exhibits with the entrance decorated by a professional landscaper; Conservation and Education, Mrs. Alfred Pilz and Entrance to the Artistic division done by Mrs. Manuel Mann.

There will be a Junior

Division open to children through fourteen years old, as follows: "Come into My Garden", a garden in a cigar box open to 5 to 8 year olds; "Make Believe" a miniature room including table setting for 9 to 11 year olds; and "Shadows", using live material for 12 to 14 year olds.

All residents in the area are invited to place an entry in the Horticultural, Artistic, or Junior Divisions and may do so by calling the Entries Chairman, Mrs. Raymond Bohne by calling HI5-7860 or GA2-7500 or by contacting a member of the Garden Club in their area for the schedule book.

The participating clubs of the Garden Council are members of the Garden Clubs of Illinois, in which a member of the National Council for State Garden clubs.

Here's your chance to do something to help clean up our environment...

The week of May 2 through 9, by a resolution of the Oak Lawn Village Board of Trustees, is being designated SPRING CLEAN UP WEEK in Oak Lawn. The local Anti-Litter Committee, composed of members of the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce, Oak Lawn Garden Club and representatives from the Village, is seeking the cooperation of the organizations in the Village to make this an effective operation.

What can you do???

...Bring this before your group at your next meeting.

...Appoint a committee to notify all your members.

...Ask each member to pledge his cooperation to see that his property (business and personal) is litter free. Include alleys, parking lots, driveways, area ways between buildings.

...Emphasize that all litter be placed in covered containers for removal by the sanitation service. Do not sweep sidewalks into gutters as wind and traffic spread debris.

The business community is being contacted through the Chamber of Commerce. We expect to have the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts helping.

With the support of all community-minded citizens we hope to put on a HAPPY FACE for Spring!!!

Can we count on you?

SECOND PLACE - RED RIBBON 9/23/68

The entry of the Oak Lawn Garden Club in the category "Home Treasures" missed by one point in the judging at the Chicago World Flower and Garden Show held last week in the Amphitheatre, of winning the blue ribbon for first place.

Mrs. Manuel Mann, a past president of the club and an antique buff, made the setting for an entry hall usually found in large homes at the turn of the century. The table consisted of three kinds of imported woods, mahogany top, hand carved legs and trim of applewood with the ball and claw feet, representing a dragon holding a pearl, and a lower shelf of rosewood. The dragons and feet are of brass and the balls of wood instead of glass. The table was used before the turn of the century in a home at 52nd ave. and 98th st. in Oak Lawn and the lamp was used on this same table. The base is made of ornamental iron with a dragon and shell pattern, the stem of pewter and brass and the globe is English overlay, in which the glass is over the color.

The container which held an arrangement of spring flowers was of cranberry glass of the same era and the small vase on the lower shelf was called "End of Day" because the glass makers used up all the colors left in the molds at the end of the day's work. The calling card tray was of silver and glass which held calling cards used before the turn of the century.

Mrs. Mann was assisted by Mrs. Ruth Saunoris, president of the Club.

Garden Club of Illinois Tops Flower Show

BY EDITH THOMPSON

One of the most delightful areas in the annual Chicago World Flower and Garden Show that opened yesterday in the International Amphitheatre, S. Halsted and W. 43rd sts., is the charming and colorful Garden Club of Illinois exhibition.

This year is no exception.

Theme, in tune with Illinois' Sesquicentennial year, is "Out of the Prairie - Illinois."

Table arrangements, still lifes, shadow boxes, free standing arrangements, and all kinds of special artistic and beautiful "studies in flowers" will expand the historical theme.

Several South Side and suburban Garden clubs are taking part in the show. Winners will be listed in Wednesday's exhibition.

Included are the following clubs, all of whom have toted home prizes for years in the big competition. (Through the years, Garden Club of Illinois members have become very professional, indeed. Competition is very keen.)

Brainerd Garden club: A still life entry, "Life Aboard a Showboat"; and a bridal table, "Rejoice and Share". Mrs. Raymond Bohne, 10432 S. Drake ave., is in charge of both arrangements for the club.

Hickory Hills Garden club: Mrs. Stanley Skaley, Hickory Hills, is in charge of an "interpretation of the Myrtle Walgreen Garden in Dixon".

Oak Lawn Garden Club: Mrs. Manuel Mann, Oak Lawn, is chairman of the arrangement of a Victorian occasional table, "Home Treasures."

Morgan Park Garden Club: Mrs. J. C. McFarlane, 6425 S. Oakley, is chairman of the club's entry in a free standing exhibit class, "Prairie Legends."

Tinley Park Garden club, with Mrs. Paul Wilkens, 17108 S. Oak Park ave., as chairman, entered two classes: "Paths Across the Prairie," an arrangement; and also a sophisticated table arrangement class: "Room for One More".

The entry of the Oak Lawn Garden Club in the category "Home Treasures" missed by one point in the judging at the Chicago World Flower and Garden Show held last week in the Amphitheatre, of winning the blue ribbon for first place.

Mrs. Manuel Mann, a past president of the club and an antique buff, made the setting for an entry hall usually found in large homes at the turn of the century. The table consisted of three kinds of imported woods, mahogany top, hand carved legs and trim of applewood with the ball and claw feet, representing a dragon holding a pearl, and a lower shelf of rosewood. The dragons and feet are of brass and the balls of wood instead of glass. The table was used before the turn of the century in a home at 52nd ave. and 98th st. in Oak Lawn and the lamp was used on this same table. The base is made of ornamental iron with a dragon and shell pattern, the stem of pewter and brass and the globe is English overlay, in which the glass is over the color.

The container which held an arrangement of spring flowers was of cranberry glass of the same era and the small vase on the lower shelf was called "End of Day" because the glass makers used up all the colors left in the molds at the end of the day's work. The calling card tray was of silver and glass which held calling cards used before the turn of the century.

Mrs. Mann was assisted by Mrs. Ruth Saunoris, president of the Club.

The entry of the Oak Lawn Garden club in the category "Home Treasures" missed winning Blue Ribbon honors by one point at the Chicago World Flower show.

HOME TREASURES

The ball and claw feet on the table is of Chinese origin, representing a dragon holding a pearl; (according to an old Chinese Legend.)

It was a creation of European Cabinet makers and carried to the far East and made there to please Europeans. It did not become popular here until the middle of the eighteenth century.

This particular table is made of 3 kinds of imported woods. The top being mahogany, the hand carved legs and trim are applewood. The lower shelf is made of rosewood. The dragons and claws on feet are of brass, the balls being made of wood instead of glass.

This table was used before the turn of the century in a home at 52nd Ave. and 98th.St. in Oak Lawn, Ill. It was used at the foot of a spiral stairway in the reception hall.

The lamp was used on this same table. It is of the same era.

Please notice the dragon and shell pattern on the lamp base, which is of ornamental iron, the rest of the lamp being pewter and brass. The globe on the lamp is known as English Overlay: the glass is over the color.

The container that holds the arrangement is cranberry glass, of the same era. The small vase on the lower shelf was called End of Day, because the glass makers used up all the colors left in the molds at the days end.

The calling card tray is of silver and glass holding calling cards used before the turn of the century.

Anti Litter Campaign Conducted By Oak Lawn Garden Club

Company coming! Are you ready? On Sunday, September 21st Oak Lawn will expect no less than 100,000 guests to help celebrate her 60th Birthday! A gigantic Parade sponsored jointly by the Oak Lawn Village and Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce promises to bring swelling crowds throughout the Community. Are you prepared? Mrs. Robert Henthorne, Corresponding Secretary for the Oak Lawn Garden Club and Chairman of an anti-litter Campaign emphasizes that inasmuch as guests invariably take in sweeping glances at housekeeping, all residents and business houses become critically aware of their immediate surroundings. A conscious effort on the part of the entire Community and its business people could well eliminate cluttered street corners, weeds, bad displays, dirty windows and sidewalks. Let's eliminate rubbish and stray litter marring Our Town. Clean Up, Spruce Up. 100,000 guests arriving!

Chamber Parade Success

We all know by know that the 60th Anniversary Parade was a smashing success! And that wasn't any accident -- much hard work went into the forming of the parade and many people need to be thanked for their efforts in contributing to the finale of many, many weeks of time, thought and effort.

To the many, many people and organizations who participated -- in one way or another -- the Oak Lawn Chamber of Commerce extends their thanks. . .the Village of Oak Lawn, the merchants of Oak Lawn, the people of Oak Lawn, the Police and Fire Departments, the parade participants, the onlookers. You all contributed to a fine, well appreciated event.

Congratulations to the following winners in specified categories: Professional Floats: 1. Travel Unlimited, 2. Oak Lawn Garden Club, 3. Society Gal. Non Professional Floats: 1. Monticello, 2. Oak Lawn Thespians, 3. Trinity Lutheran Church. Bands: 1. Plainfield High School, 2. Evergreen Park High School, 3. Oak Lawn High School. Twirling: 1. Twirling Jewels, 2. Imperials, 3. Silhouettes.

Winners In Great Parade

The judges of the Great Parade in Oak Lawn Sunday chose this float depicting life in foreign countries as first prize winner in the professional float category. The Oak Lawn Garden club took second place and the Society Gals float was awarded third place.

The bright sunny day drew record crowds to the parade commemorating the 60th anniversary of the Village of Oak Lawn.

The marching bands, baton twirlers, antiques cars, and beautiful floats kept oldsters and youngsters alike entertained for more than three hours.

For more pictures of the parade entries see page 10.

"Rhapsody in Bloom"

"Our grateful thanks and appreciation to all who participated in any way in the show, "Rhapsody in Bloom." This sentiment is expressed and shared by our three leading ladies shown to the left—Mrs. Eugene J. Tammillo, co-chairman; Mrs. Jesse F. McDonald, chairman; and Mrs. Robert O. Clark, co-chairman. Their happy smiles radiated their joy over a most successful show.

It was an excited and effervescent committee that humbly, but proudly, accepted the three plaques awarded to The Garden Club of Illinois, which bore the following inscriptions:

Award Winner

MARIE VEAGUE FOILS FLOWER SHOW FASHIONS . . . AND WINS!

by Jerry Rehoff

The Garden Club of Illinois, Inc. presented its spring flower show, "Rhapsody in Bloom" in conjunction with the Chicago World Flower and Garden Show at the International Amphitheatre, March 22 - 30, 1969. Exhibitors had a choice of two exhibition sections, one for Artistic Design, the other for Horticulture. Artistic Design was confined to the expression of musical compositions or composers. Marie Veague (Computer Department), past president and member of the Oak Lawn Garden Club, chose to enter Artistic Design under the category of, "Yesterday's Composers - Pre 20th Century". Her choice of composers - whose time and locale she would be required to express with a complete table setting and floral centerpiece: Francis Scott Key.

Why the composer of our national anthem? Marie and her family have always been sincerely patriotic (pictures and story of husband Clarence, a World War II veteran, and son, Ronald, a Staff Sgt. in the Air Force and recently returned from Vietnam, were used by the Navy Dept. in its "Pride Program"). Recent newscasts of anti-flag demonstrations convinced Marie that a display of pride in flag and country was not only appropriate, but necessary. It is truly gratifying for those of us who feel the same way, that Marie's red, white and blue bouquet and colonial setting won, not only the first prize blue ribbon, but also the tri-color ribbon for artistic excellence!

The fact that Marie won these highly coveted awards is an inspiring success story. How she won them is an amusing tale of faith, hope and determination. Having decided on her composer, she was informed that such a period display (1814) would be expected to consist of a delicate cut crystal setting for six, with tablecloth and napkins of finest linen. The centerpiece, of course, should be no more than six inches in height so that the diners could see over it. The authorities were thinking of a wealthy colonist's home. Marie's idea was to reflect the atmosphere of the tavern wherein Key composed "The Star Spangled Banner" after being imprisoned and forced to watch the British bombardment of Fort McHenry.

Almost as if in total defiance of suggested period decor, Marie's tablecloth and napkins were of a heavy brocade. Her setting consisted of six pewter plates and ale mugs! Her flowers were arranged in a stemmed compote about 2-1/2 feet tall ("Let them look under it"). Nonetheless, it presented a scene of serene elegance which was televised in color to appear on Channel 9. The story and pictures appeared in various newspapers featuring such notables as Governor Ogilvie, Mrs. Frank Packee, President of the Garden Clubs of Illinois, and Mrs. Eugene Tamillo, Co-Chairman of the World Flower Show.

Judging encompassed 5 considerations: Overall Design - 25 points, Perfection of Decorative Unit - 25, Conformance to Schedule and Interpretation - 25, Functionalism - 10, Distinction - 15. A score of 100 is as improbable as perfection itself. Marie's score: a near impossible 97!

Marie tells of how she had finished the bouquet at home the day before the entry time and how its tender care requirements slightly disrupted the family routine. It had to be kept cold, and with its tall container and wide spread, it was too much for the small recreation room refrigerator. Thereupon, handy snacks and foodstuffs were evicted from the convenient kitchen refrigerator and exiled to far off downstairs.

Then Marie installed the precious perishables in the family refrigerator with a sign on the door pleading a touching case for art appreciation: "Please Don't Eat The Daisies".

The ladies have handmade Christmas items which will be sold at their "Christmas Splendor" on Wednesday, Dec. 4th. Admission is to be by donation of $1.50

The Oak Lawn Garden Club is already hard at work for their annual holiday program to be held this year on November 15, in Pilgrim hall of the Pilgrim Faith United Church of Christ. They have secured the services of Virginia Christensen of Skokie, a nationally accredited flower show judge and teacher, who will demonstrate how to make decorations to dress up one's home for the holiday season, using your own things. They will also have a "gift boutique" so one can shop early. Carol Walton, vice-president, is chairman and is being assisted by Marie Veague, president.

The Oak Lawn Garden Club will have their annual fund raising affair next Monday, Nov. 29, in the Masonic Temple, 9424 S. 52nd ave. at 8 p.m. Mrs. Fred Thornton, an accredited State flower show judge, will be the speaker and make arrangements on the theme "Spirit of Christmas." Club members will also have gift items for sale and refreshments are included in the price of the ticket which may be obtained from members or by calling Marge Hagman, ticket chairman, at GA 2-4984. Proceeds are used for the beautification of the Village. Edith Jepson and Ida Mann are co-chairmen for the affair.

Oak Lawn Garden Sale Holds Sale

The annual plant and gift sale sponsored by the Oak Lawn Garden club was held May 12 at 5255 W. 95th st.

Because the sale was held the day before Mother's day, the club had a available potted plants and arrangements suitable for gifts with a special selection priced low enough to fit the average child's purse.

In addition to the gift selection, they also had flats of the more popular annuals, perennials and decorative bushes for plantings around the home and yard.

This was the first affair of their new year under officers installed recently as follows:

Mrs. Manuel Mann, 9344 S. Sproat, president; Betty Woell, 9729 S. Warren, first vice president and program chairman; Florence Drummond, 9739 Tully, second vice president and membership chairman; Marie Veague, 5352 W. 90th st., recording secretary; Marge Walton, 9529 S. Major, corresponding secretary, and Ethel Marshall, 9818 S. Cook, treasurer.

All monies raised through the club's various projects is used primarily for beautification of areas throughout the village by planting of Almey flowering crab trees. Anyone who would like to have them may order these trees through the club.

Brag, brag! The Oak Lawn Garden Club, which has an entry every year in the World Flower Show really hit the jackpot this year, not only winning the blue ribbon for their entry for a table setting, but got the Tri-Color award denoting the best of the show. The Club has won several blue ribbons, but this is the first Tri-Color. Congratulations, ladies!

The regular meeting of the Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Veague March 26, and the program for the evening, under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Bohne, was table settings. They also celebrated the Tri-Color with cokes served in glasses decorated with the Tri-Color ribbons. MARIE VEAGUE WON THE TRI-COLOR FOR CLUB
